Dear Bulldogs,

The district has been made aware, late this evening, of a non-specific threat to New York schools. The threat originated in a New York City School however we have information that similar threats could apply to other schools in the state. There is an active police investigation by law enforcement agencies regarding the non-specific threat.

After consulting with the Sullivan County Sheriff's Office, we were informed that there are currently no specific threats to the Sullivan West Central School District.

The safety of our students and staff is of the utmost importance to us in Sullivan West. Out of an abundance of caution we will be on heightened alert and wanted you to be aware. We will continue to monitor this matter in collaboration with the Sullivan County Sheriff's Office and at this time no changes to the school day tomorrow are anticipated.

Thank you for your patience and understanding of this late-night communication.

Take care,

Kathleen Bressler
