Good Morning, Bulldog Families!

Thank you for your support during our initial days of school for our students, both in-person and at-home. We are very proud of our students for their hard work and focus, and deeply gratified by the professionalism and dedication of our faculty and staff.

In August, we shared an initial "Frequently Asked Questions" document related to our Re-Opening Plans. We have updated that document with some new information to share with you, and you can find the updated "Frequently Asked Questions" document here: Updated FAQ.

We had previously announced another Re-Opening webinar for this evening (Tuesday) at 6:00 pm. However, we have had very few questions submitted in advance of the scheduled webinar, and so we will be postponing the webinar until a time when there are more questions for our leadership team to address.

Thank you, and have a great week, Bulldogs!

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Walker
